

My organization (with 27,000 members) is opposed to your new proposed regulations on unsolicited faxes. As members of our organization, these individuals pay dues and expect to be contacted and informed by our association.